FALL 2022

Annual PNCS Picnic at Fort Borst Park in Centralia, WA on July 9, 2022 in person, after being cancelled in 2020 and 2021 because of Covid.

PNCS (Pacific Northwest Cornish Society) meeting minutes Sept 18, 2022. 6pm by Zoom

Bob Scott, President, opened the meeting.

He said that at the July meeting another group took our building. We had to meet outside, and had no electricity. We couldn't bring people in by Zoom.

So, we decided to have an extra meeting in September by Zoom

There are 2 issues to decide

- 1) Officers
- 2) Whether we should just do Zoom meetings, and meet in person once a year at Fort Borst Park in Centralia

We are getting more people attending with Zoom meetings, since we are so scattered around Washington and Oregon.

As is usual, the people present went around and said their name and mentioned the town or village in Cornwall that they are connected to. Present were Gord'n Perrott, Pamela Perrott, Bob Scott, Mary Sisson, Margaret Porter, Alene Reaugh, Sandy Ryder, Bonnie La Doe, Doug Wolford, Nancy Huddleston, Chris Ensor, Val Ensor, Ann Holiday in Pa, Joan Huston, Craig Pedlar, and Bob Scott.

We discussed the in person meeting in July. It is traditionally the 3rd Saturday in July. It's between the Seattle and Portland Highland games. We call and schedule our date in the park at the first of the year.

We discussed possible August dates. The first week in August is bad for Gord'n Perrott and Pam Perrott. 2nd Sat is ok. We suggested moving the summer in person meeting to the 2nd Sat in August. Joan moved and Bonnie seconded. Passed.

We meet the first Sat in March – it is close to St Piran's Day

We would have a Zoom meeting in October – 3rd Sat 10/15 at 4pm, 7pm for east coast folks

Margaret has Alene's stuff – her book of how to do things

Bob Scott has the country store stuff, and the library. We sold stuff at the Highland Games, when we went. And at the in person meetings

Bonnie LaDoe is membership

Val Ensor offered to help people with installing Zoom and using it

Dot Hosking Huntley is treasurer

Mickey updates the website

Gord'n Perrott is VP

Pam Perrott is secretary

Joan Huston is doing the newsletter

The motion was carried for the suggested meeting dates

There was a discussion of the membership list. If it says 6/22 it means paid to 5/23

The website is wrong, currently, too

Send dues to Dot at her new address: 1451 Spruce Street, #204, Florence OR 97439

Bob said someone needs to be president. He is definitely standing down. Doug Wolford volunteered to be president.

Pam Perrott, as secretary, does the meeting agenda. Pam did not know that!

We decided to look at the library contents at next summer's picnic, when we meet in person.

Margaret will be happy to keep the picnic stuff- plates, cutlery, napkins

Oct 15th is the next meeting at 4pm Pacific, 7pm Eastern

Minutes for the previous meeting on July 9, 2022

We met at Fort Borst Park in Centralia, WA. We had reserved one of the two kitchens. But when we arrived early to set up, the building was open and a group was setting up for a memorial service. They had not reserved the room, but just took it. We decided not to fight them because of it being a memorial service, so we ended up outside. We set up tables and chairs in the park across the parking lot from the Kitchens. Gord'n Perrott and I had brought a screen, projector and computer so we could project the Zoom screen and the rest of us could see the people on Zoom. But we didn't have a long enough extension cord to bring electricity that far. Also Alene had trouble logging on to Zoom, so we cancelled reluctantly, the Zoom part of the meeting. Sorry to the folks who tried to join us remotely. You missed the wonderful spread of food provided by the members who attended, in any case. It was great! I believe 14 people were in attendance.

Bob Scott, President, opened the meeting. He said that at last year's annual meeting via Zoom, it was decided that Gord'n Perrott would be VP of the north, Bonnie would do membership, and Mickey would continue as webmaster.

As usual, the people present went around and said their name and mentioned the town or village in Cornwall that they were connected to.

PNCS has existed for 24 years. Our treasurer, Dot Hosking, was not present--we have about $2000 in our account. We can still meet at the church in Puyallup that we have met at for years--we have the information necessary. Our prior contact, Bob Bruce has died. Our south meeting place--the Stamp Society --costs $300 a year.

We discussed PNCS.

We need a President!!!! Please volunteer.

We have a VP - Gord'n Perrott, who will continue.

Secretary to take minutes- Pamela Perrott.

Newsletter - Joan Huston.

Treasurer - Dot Hosking

Membership - Bonnie LaDoe

Bob Scott is resigning as president.

We decided to have another Zoom meeting to decide whether to continue or dissolve the organization. We thought we could continue to meet once a year in person at Fort Borst Park for our annual picnic, and in between, we could continue to do Zoom meetings. Val Ensor has volunteered to set those up, or walk someone through doing it if she can't be there. This seems to be the consensus of the members in attendance and by many other members that have texted their wishes for the organization to continue. We decided on a meeting at 6 pm on Sunday September 18, 2022 on Zoom to vote on a President and to continue the club or not.

We also have Margaret Porter storing Alene's book with all her information in it and all the boxes Alene was storing for the Country Store, items for sale, some highland games stuff, and two boxes of Library books that members can borrow and read.

Seeking Cornish travel contacts

If you've traveled in Cornwall and worked with a guide, lodging owner or travel coordinator there, I would love your input. We're planning early for a 50th wedding anniversary trip in 2026 with all our kids, and would love to know who people recommend from personal experience. I could even compile responses into a story for the next newsletter. Since grandkids from 9-14 would be along, any information on kid-friendly activities would also be useful. Please email me at sissonrm@gmail.com. Thank you! -- Mary Sisson

“Canadians have, by their own endeavours, built a country and society which is widely admired across the world. I am fortunate to have been witness to many of the developments and accomplishments of modern Canada. As Queen of Canada for nearly six decades, my pride in this country remains undimmed.”

- Her Majesty The Queen, Halifax, Nova Scotia, June 28, 2010

“Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II was steadfast in her service to Canada, the Commonwealth, and its people. It is with a heavy heart, but deep appreciation, that we will come together to honour Her Majesty – whose lifetime of public service is an extraordinary example to us all.”- Prime Minister Trudeau

Toronto Cornish Association
2022 September 20th

An excerpt from the notice published by the Duchy of Cornwall on the 8th of September, 2022:

DUCHY of CORNWALL

It is with great sadness that we observe the demise of HM Queen Elizabeth II.

HM Queen Elizabeth II took a keen interest in the Duchy of Cornwall during both the reign of her father HM King George VI and in the early years of her own reign. Together with HRH The Duke of Edinburgh, she made a number of visits across the Duchy estate and attended Council meetings until her son, HRH The Prince of Wales came of age as Duke of Cornwall.

The passing of HM Queen Elizabeth II and the succession of HM King Charles III marks the transition of the title of the Duke of Cornwall to HRH The Duke of Cambridge. As such the estate is in safe hands. It is right at this time, to recognise the huge changes made by our 24th Duke of Cornwall over 70 years. His Majesty passes the estate on much improved.

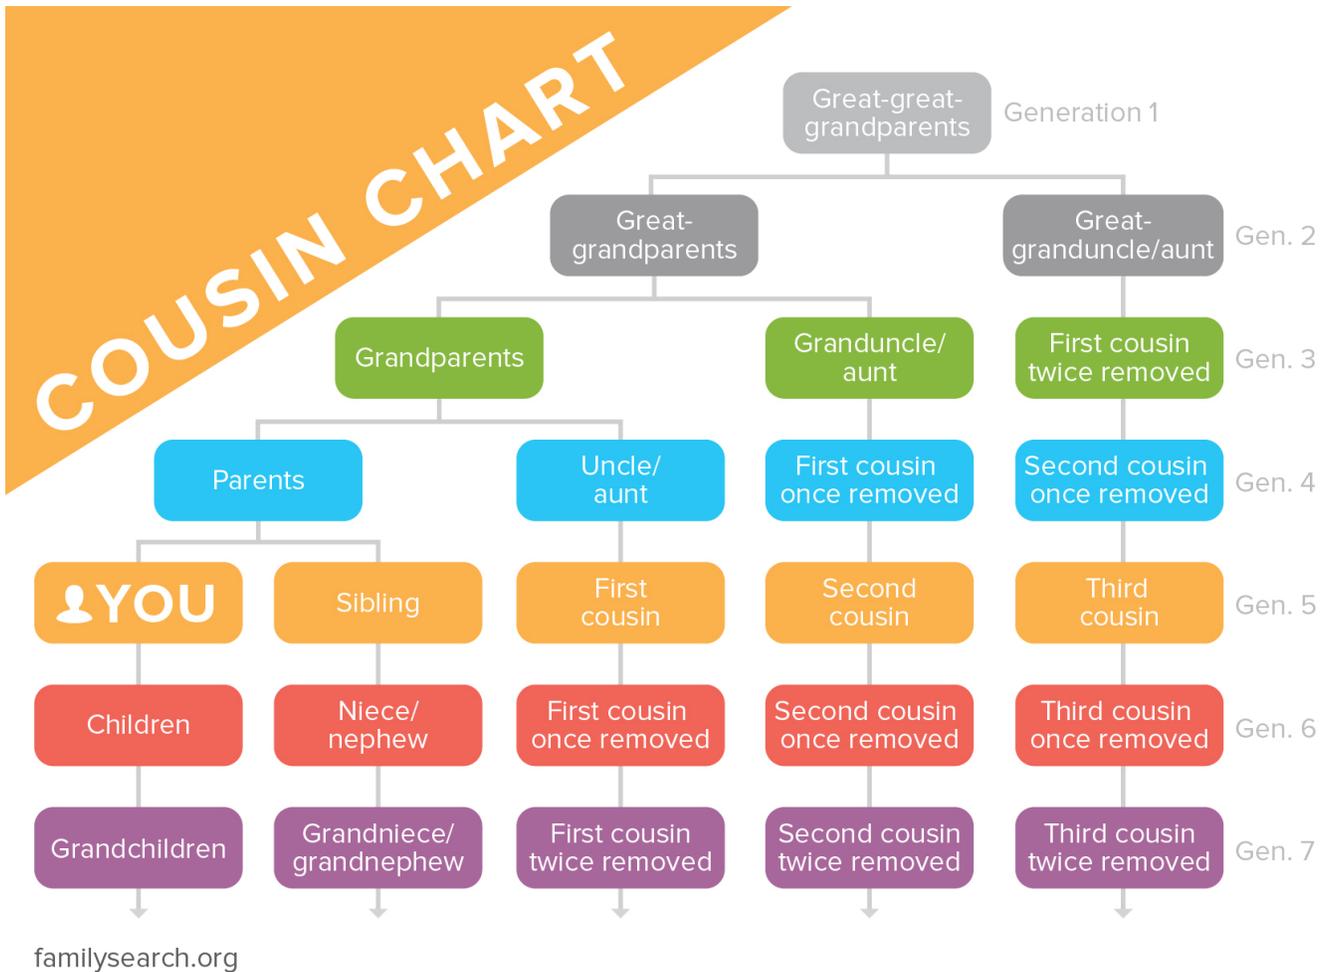

The 25th Duke of Cornwall, William and the Duchess, Kate Middleton

The Duchy of Cornwall is a well-managed private estate, which was established by Edward III in 1337. The revenues from the estate are passed to HRH The Prince of Wales and Duke of Cornwall, who chooses to use them to fund his public, charitable and private activities and those of his family. The Duchy consists of around 53,000 hectares of land in 23 counties, mostly in the South West of England. The principal activity of the Duchy is the sustainable, commercial management of its land and properties. The Duchy also has a financial investment portfolio.

Dukes of Cornwall have traditionally managed their own estates. The Duchies of Lancaster and Cornwall (Accounts) Act 1838 gave the Treasury a role to ensure that actions taken by any Duke when managing the Duchy cannot compromise the long-term value of the estate. For this reason the Treasury must, for example, approve all property transactions with a value of £500,000 or more. The Duchy's annual accounts are laid before the House of Commons and the House of Lords so that Parliament can be satisfied that the Treasury is fulfilling its statutory responsibilities.

Cornwall Online Parish Clerk Database

The records in the Cornwall OPC (Online Parish Clerk) database have been transcribed by OPCs and volunteers from Cornwall Parish Registers and other sources. Access to the data-base is completely free of charge but we do have some annual costs to pay for website hosting.

These costs amount to several hundred pounds per year and we welcome donations from those who use the database (which can be found at <http://www.cornwall-opc-database.org>).

The database has over 4.6 million transcribed records so surely there is some information about your family there. A team of OPCs can also provide assistance with research relating to a specific parish in Cornwall - free of charge.
