26th Annual Picnic!

President's Message

Doug Woldford

Our first trip to Cornwall in 1984 coincided with our 10th wedding anniversary and the 40th anniversary of D-Day. We were hosted by my mother's cousin Ken Tamblyn, who was born and raised in Cornwall, and his wife, Diana, also of Cornish descent. Ken had served in the Royal Air Force during WWII.

In addition to a personal tour of Cornwall, affectionately known as "Tamblyn Tours", Ken began to teach us about the role of British citizens defending their country from Hitler's attacks. He had been stationed at an Air Force base near Oxford. The airplane hangars were camouflaged to look like a sheep pasture from the air. Ken's assignment was to move the fake sheep to different spots every day so it looked like they had been grazing. He emphasized the importance of the vast number of citizens helping to keep the Nazis from destroying their homeland.

As we remember the 80th Anniversary of D-Day, we know that many Cornish men and women work hard to defend their country. Without their dedication, things might have been much worse.

P

Minutes of last meeting March 2, 2024

The meeting was held on Zoom.

Joan Huston announced that our speaker, Yowann Byghan was ill and could not do his talk that day. We will try to book him for a later meeting

John Webb from the Toronto Cornish Society attended -he wanted to hear the speaker. He said we are welcome to attend their meetings, most of which are on Zoom. We have been getting notices of the Toronto meetings by email recently.

We talked a bit about the gathering in the Upper Peninsula in Michigan this coming August 15-17, 2024. Some would like to attend by Zoom rather than in person. The gathering is being organized by CAHS – the Cornish American Heritage Society. The CAHS website has a PayPal account. You can pay by PayPal to attend by Zoom. The Friday keynote can be attended by Zoom. See cousinjack.org for more info and to register.

This gathering ties in with the Pasty Festival on August 10th

Our next meeting is August 10th 11am at Fort Borst Park in Centralia. It is a potluck picnic. We will have one of the kitchen buildings which have a large meeting area and a kitchen, and electric outlets if you need one.

Present at the March 2 meeting were:

Gord'n Perrott, Pamela Perrott, Dot Hosking, Joan Huston, Bonnie LaDoe, Alene Reaugh, Mary Sisson, Sandy Ryder, Margaret Porter, Douglas Hambly, John Webb of Toronto Cornish Society

We went around and introduced ourselves and listed our Cornish connections, and Cornish names if we know them.

John announced that there will be a mining conference in Toronto, which may be of interest

They raise the Cornish flag on St Piran's Day in Toronto. The Duke of Cornwall Pub there has adopted them

When the Toronto Cornish Association went to Zoom, they gained members.

He is a member of the Australia Cornish Association – the only hassle is the time difference!

Gord'n said St Piran's Oratory is the oldest Christian church in the UK

Dot Hosking, our treasurer, announced a donation to speakers at CAHS-$1000 to those who would speak at CAHS

$500 to anyone who wants to go to the gathering

Dot priced going and thinks it would cost about $3000 to go, with hotel, travel, the cost of the conference etc.

PNCS Membership report as of June 24, 2024

With the addition of our newest member, Lorene Kealy from Battle Ground, Washington, we now have 54 members. Of these, seven members are not up to date with their dues and have been notified. Unfortunately, we will have to delete them from our roster if not paid current by July 1. Most of us just have current 2024-2025 dues that have been already paid or I'm sure will be soon.

Hope to see everyone at the summer meeting!

Regards,
Bonnie LaDoe

CAHS Membership

Since 2011 our members have been automatically enrolled in membership in Cornish American Heritage Society (CAHS). Their membership structure changed recently and dues are no long charged.

CAHS is the umbrella organization for all Cornish societies in the US and offers benefits to all members, such as a blog, a book club, a quarterly (soon to be monthly!) newsletter, and access to hundred of other members interested in their Cornish culture.

I am no longer able to enroll anyone but myself, so I'm letting you know that this opportunity is available and worth the effort. You can become a member simply by completing the "Join" form on their website at cousinjack.org.

Check out their website and consider joining this wonderful organization.
